Weingut Strehn is located in Deutschkreutz in Mittelburgenland, also called the Blaufränkischland. Joseph Strehn founded the winery in the 1950s, and since then his focus has always been Blaufränkisch. All aspects of production are overseen by the family. The third generation is now in charge. Patrick Pfneisl is the winemaker, his sister Pia Pfneisl manages the 50 hectare estate, and their youngest brother Andreas Pfneisl handles the vineyards.
